Logo & type design practice

Passionate about imagery, I have been working in art direction, graphic design, illustration, and lettering for over ten years.

Trained at École Estienne, I now divide my time between interface design, art direction and typeface development.

When I am not looking after my two daughters, I spend my free time reading, drawing, and taking photographs.

i I was born in 1989 in Grenoble, France. I am 37 years old.

Experiences

I began my career working under Creative Director Philippe Chanet at the agency Magic Bridge, where I handled accounts including Elie Saab, Roger & Gallet and Rémy Cointreau.

After a brief stint at the agency Mazarine Mlle Noï, I reunited with Françoise Jacquey, Creative Director at Puig France, where I managed graphic design assets for the group's brands.

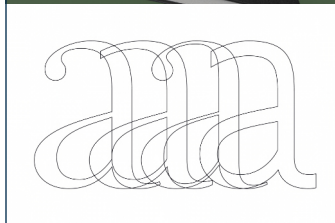

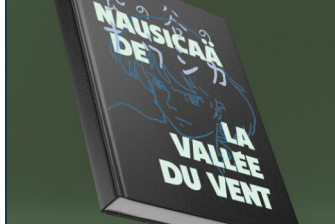

Since 2018, I have been working as a Design Lead at Algonomia, while also collaborating regularly with Creative Director Étienne Bardelli on typographic projects.
